

Head Athletic Trainer
 Bryn Mawr College
 Bryn Mawr, PA 19010

2001	MS	Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY Health Education
1996		University of Maryland – Baltimore County, Baltimore, MD Graduate Intern
1995	ATC	Athletic Training Certification National Athletic Trainers' Association
1995	BS	Temple University, Philadelphia, PA Kinesiology / Athletic Training

Aug 2006- Present

, Bryn Mawr, PA

- Primarily responsible for all aspects of athletic training services for 200 women student-athletes.
- Coordinate care for injuries and illnesses by utilizing the orthopedic and medical physicians associated with Bryn Mawr College.
- Handled all insurance claims for services provided by the orthopedic and medical physicians associated with Bryn Mawr College.
- Teaching within the Physical Education program of Bryn Mawr College.

- Responsibilities include post-surgical rehab, pre- and post-practice treatments, management of insurance claims, referral to various allied health services and travel with Wrestling, including 2004 and 2005 NCAA championships, and Women's Field Hockey.
- Perform pre-season and final weight certification for wrestling in accordance with the National Wrestling Coaches Association Optimum Performance Calculator.
- Supervision of the professional athletic training staff, athletic training students and 12 Division I teams working out of the Physical Fitness Center athletic training room.
- Organize and manage pre-participation physicals for all 18 athletic teams.
- Management of outstanding insurance claims for all student-athletes. Coordinate with ProHealthcare billing services for payment of outstanding bills.
- Adjunct Professor for CAAHEP approved curriculum program.
- ACI for student athletic trainers working with Wrestling and Field Hockey.

2001- 2002 _____, Hempstead, NY

- Primary coverage responsibilities for Women's basketball and Men's soccer. Responsibilities included, but not limited to, pre- and post-practice treatments, management of insurance claims, referrals to various allied health services.
- Managed budget for all three athletic training facilities.
- Clinical instructor for student athletic trainers for Women's basketball and Men's soccer.
- Supervised all post-surgical rehabilitations for Women's basketball and Men's soccer.

2000-2001 _____ . Shirley, NY

- Organized and instructed workshops for Physical Therapists and Athletic Trainers, explaining the use of isokinetic equipment and its implementation into a rehabilitation protocol.

1998 – 2000 _____, Hempstead, NY

- Primary coverage responsibilities as assistant athletic trainer for football, head athletic trainer for wrestling, secondary coverage responsibilities for women's lacrosse.
- Supervised all post-surgical rehabilitations for football and wrestling.
- Assisted in the instruction of student athletic trainers on emergency procedures, including spine boarding and splinting.

1996 – 1998 _____, Baltimore,
MD

- Primary coverage responsibilities for men's soccer, women's basketball, women's lacrosse, baseball and softball; secondary coverage responsibilities for women's soccer, men's and women's cross county, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's tennis and volleyball.

1992 – 1995 _____, Philadelphia,
PA

- Primary coverage responsibilities for men's basketball, men's tennis, football; secondary coverage responsibilities for women's tennis and men's soccer.

- Instructor – Bryn Mawr College
 - PE 053T Principles of Athletic Training
 - PE B005 Badminton
 - PE B001 Archery
 - PE B064 Introduction to Golf
 - PE B022 Project Fitness
 - PE B012 Anything but P.E.

- Assistant Adjunct Professor –

June 2003 NYSATA Annual Meeting: Isokinetic Data Interpretation

National Athletic Trainers' Association #953654